Donation: The David M. Biagi Lecture

To honor the distinguished career of the late School of Architecture Professor and Director, the College of Design has created the David M. Biagi Lecture. This lecture has been initially funded thanks to a generous donation by Dale Boden and Ceci Conway, friends and patrons of Biagi.

Biagi, an internationally recognized architect and full professor at the University of Kentucky, passed away in October 2019. He was the inaugural director of the School of Architecture at the University of Kentucky's College of Design (2003-2016), Interim Dean of the College of Design (2007-2008), and the inaugural Director of Studio Louisville (2017-2019). While David's home was Architecture, he was also an interdisciplinary thinker, and we hope to honor him through a college-wide, public and notable speaker every year.

The hope and plan is to endow this annual lecture for the College of Design. We welcome your contributions to help us meet that goal. The inaugural Lecture will occur with the opening of the new College of Design building.
