

THE FUTURE OF THE COLLEGE OF DESIGN BUILDING UPDATE 12

Donation: Student Organization Seminar

AIA Kentucky has graciously donated $25,000 to the UK College of Design. This generous gift will go toward the Student Organization Seminar Space, as part of the College's New Building campaign.

Also known as Kentucky Society of Architects, AIA Kentucky is a nonprofit professional organization representing the interests of and providing services to nearly 700 Kentucky Architects, Architectural Interns, affiliated design professionals and Allied Members. The Society's programs and activities have a statewide focus, and services include: government affairs; professional liability and employee benefit programs; continuing education and professional development; design assistance teams to further community planning and development; social and recreational events; design awards programs; and support of the University of Kentucky College of Design.

Having existed in Kentucky for over 100 years, the AIA empowers architects to create a better environment and society. This gift signifies a commitment to partnership as both the College of Design and the profession continue to evolve.
