School of Interiors 50th Anniversary Scholarship

An anonymous donor has given the College of Design School of Interiors $25,000 toward a $50,000 endowed scholarship. This gift empowers talented students to pursue an interiors education without financial barriers.

This is a matching scholarship gift that offers alumni and friends the opportunity to contribute as well. Scholarships will provide funding for undergraduate or graduate tuition, materials, and educational experiences such as firm visits and education abroad opportunities.

“This is a wonderful way to celebrate 50 years of excellence in interiors education, and to ensure this work can continue for the next 50 years,” said the donor. “It’s my hope that alumni and friends will help contribute so that aspiring professionals have the resources needed to excel in their craft.”

To participate in the School of Interiors 50th Anniversary Scholarship Matching Gift, scan the QR code to donate online, or mail a check to Don Witt, University of Kentucky, King Alumni House Suite 203, Lexington, KY 40506-0119.

Note: Due to space and availability limitations, we were unable to include photos of all School of Interiors faculty. But we appreciate the contributions of every individual who has been involved with the School over the last 50 years!